ALSO PRESENT

Attorney, Sean Logsdon
Secretary Gloria Kijek
Treasurer Charles Cybuch

SOLICITOR REPORT

Attorney Logsdon reported on the following: the Borough is 100% covered on insurance, received 2 RFP's PennEastern and Reilly for Brook Street Council will score them at this meeting and award it at the regular October meeting, discussed the changes in the Service Electric contract for phone services savings good but some Council didn't like the terms of contract, he responded to the RTK request that came in, has heard nothing from Mericle, received the Seiger property file, discussed with Council what they wanted to do about Floreck property Council agreed not getting involved with neighbor dispute but maybe just ask the Florecks to fill out the permit they never got and just pay permit fee and UC statement that Borough received has to be paid and Council discussed how to handle this UC expense in the future.

SEWER REPORT

Henry Mleczynski reported on sewer grants that may be available but would have to get quotes before applying and even if the Borough didn't get grant they are still responsible for doing the sewer job. He also reported that Council should start thinking about what they want to apply for with the LSA grant. Suggestions were sidewalks, LED lights, and paving.

ROAD REPORT

Paul Casey asked about burning yard waste Saturday.

FIRE DEPARTMENT REPORT

Mr. Rutkoski asked if there is anything to burn and yes it can be done this weekend.

ADJOURNMENT

Motion to adjourn Henry Mleczynski.
Second Paul Casey.
Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted,

Gloria Kijek, Secretary
